21 COMES NOW the Defendant, by and through its counsel, Karen P. Hewitt, United States
22 Attorney, and David B. Wallace, Assistant United States Attorney, and in answer to Plaintiff's
23 Complaint, set forth the following:

24 1. Answering Paragraph 1 of the complaint, defendant affirmatively alleges that said
25 paragraph contains jurisdictional allegations which present legal conclusions and questions of law to
26 be determined solely by the court, to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer is required,
27 each, all and every allegation contained in said paragraph is denied.

28 2. Answering Paragraph 2 of the complaint, defendant affirmatively alleges that said paragraph contains jurisdictional allegations which present legal conclusions and questions of law to be determined solely by the court, to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer is required, each, all and every allegation contained in said paragraph is denied.

3. Answering Paragraph 3 of the complaint, defendant affirmatively alleges that said paragraph contains venue allegations which present legal conclusions and questions of law to be

1 determined solely by the court, to which no answer is required. To the extent an answer is required,
2 each, all and every allegation contained in said paragraph is denied.

3 4. Answering Paragraph 4 of the complaint, defendant alleges that no answer is required
4 to said paragraph inasmuch as there are no charging allegations directed to this answering defendant.
5 To the extent an answer is required, defendant denies said allegations.

6 5. Answering Paragraph 5 of the complaint, defendant alleges that no answer is required
7 to said paragraph inasmuch as there are no charging allegations directed to this answering defendant.
8 To the extent an answer is required, defendant denies said allegations.

9 6. Answering Paragraph 6 of the complaint, defendant alleges that the allegations contained
10 therein are legal conclusions solely within the purview of the court and for its determination, and no
11 answer is therefore required. To the extent an answer is required, said allegations are denied.

12 7. Answering Paragraph 7 of the complaint, defendant denies, generally and specifically,
13 each, all and every allegation contained therein.

14 8. Answering Paragraph 8 of the complaint, defendant alleges that the allegations contained
15 therein are legal conclusions solely within the purview of the court and for its determination, and no
16 answer is therefore required. To the extent an answer is required, said allegations are denied.

17 9. Answering Paragraph 9 of the complaint, defendant alleges that it is without knowledge
18 or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations therein contained, and based
19 thereon, denies generally and specifically each, all and every allegation contained therein.

20 10. Answering Paragraph 10 of the complaint, defendant alleges that the allegations
21 contained therein are legal conclusions solely within the purview of the court and for its determination,
22 and no answer is therefore required. To the extent an answer is required, said allegations are denied.

23 11. Answering Paragraph 11 of the complaint, defendant alleges that it is without knowledge
24 or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations therein contained, and based
25 thereon, denies generally and specifically each, all and every allegation contained therein.

26 12. Answering Paragraph 12 of the complaint, defendant alleges that it is without knowledge
27 or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations therein contained, and based
28 thereon, denies generally and specifically each, all and every allegation contained therein.

1           13.     Answering Paragraph 13 of the complaint, defendant alleges that no answer is required
2 to said paragraph inasmuch as there are no charging allegations directed to this answering defendant.
3 To the extent an answer is required, defendant denies said allegations.

4           14.     Answering Paragraph 14 of the complaint, defendant alleges that no answer is required
5 to said paragraph inasmuch as there are no charging allegations directed to this answering defendant.
6 To the extent an answer is required, defendant denies said allegations.

7           15.     Answering Paragraph 15 of the complaint, defendant alleges that it is without knowledge
8 or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations therein contained, and based
9 thereon, denies generally and specifically each, all and every allegation contained therein.

10          16.     Answering Paragraph 16 of the complaint, defendant alleges that it is without knowledge
11 or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations therein contained, and based
12 thereon, denies generally and specifically each, all and every allegation contained therein.

13          17.     Answering Paragraph 17 of the complaint, defendant alleges that it is without knowledge
14 or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations therein contained, and based
15 thereon, denies generally and specifically each, all and every allegation contained therein.

16          18.     Answering Paragraph 18 of the complaint, defendant alleges that it is without knowledge
17 or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations therein contained, and based
18 thereon, denies generally and specifically each, all and every allegation contained therein.

19          19.     Answering Paragraph 19 of the complaint, defendant denies, generally and specifically,
20 each, all and every allegation contained therein.

21          20.     Answering Paragraph 20 of the complaint, defendant denies, generally and specifically,
22 each, all and every allegation contained therein.

6 or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations therein contained, and based
7 thereon, denies generally and specifically each, all and every allegation contained therein.

8                               AFFIRMATIVE AND OTHER DEFENSES

9           All allegations not here before specifically admitted, denied, or modified, are hereby denied.
10 For further and separate answer, Defendant alleges as follows:

11                               FIRST DEFENSE

12           The Court lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action.

13                               SECOND DEFENSE

14           The complaint fails to state a claim against defendant upon which relief can be granted.

15                               THIRD DEFENSE

16           The complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted to the plaintiffs against the 17 defendant under the Federal Tort Claims Act (28 U.S.C. §§ 1346(b), 2671-2680), as averred in the 18 complaint or otherwise, for the reason that if the defendant were a private person, it would not be liable
19 to the plaintiffs in accordance with the law of the State of California.

20                               FOURTH DEFENSE

21           The plaintiffs are limited to recovery, if any, of the amount claimed administratively in 22 accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 2675(b).

23                               FIFTH DEFENSE

24           Plaintiff's request for trial by jury is improper and barred by statute. [28 U.S.C. § 2402.]

25                               SIXTH DEFENSE

26           Plaintiff is not entitled to attorneys fees or pre-judgment interest under the facts of this case.
27 [28 U.S.C. § 2674]

1 SEVENTH DEFENSE

2 Defendant is entitled to an offset against damages, if any, for all monies paid to plaintiff by the
3 United States as a result of plaintiff's injuries.

4 EIGHTH DEFENSE

5 All future damages, if any, must be reduced to present value.

6 NINTH DEFENSE

7 Income taxes must be deducted from all alleged past and future lost earnings, if any.

8 TENTH DEFENSE

9 Proposition 51, California Civil Code § 1431.2, et seq. provides that "each defendant shall be
10 liable only for the amount of non-economic damages allocated to the defendant in direct proportion to 11 that defendant's percentage of fault. . . ." It further provides for apportionment of non-economic 12 damages at the trial level. The United States, therefore, has no potential exposure to cross-complainants
13 for any non-economic damages paid or settled by them in the underlying tort action, nor for any related 14 expenses, costs or fees.

15 ELEVENTH DEFENSE

16 Cal. Civ. Code, §3333.4 bars certain damages, including non-pecuniary damages, under the facts
17 of this case.

18 TWELFTH DEFENSE

19 The injuries and damages alleged by plaintiff were not proximately caused by a negligent or 20 wrongful act or omission on the part of any employee, agent or officer of the United States of America.

21 THIRTEENTH DEFENSE

22 Federal Agents, involved in this matter, acted in a justified manner and with reasonable force.

23 FOURTEENTH DEFENSE

24 Plaintiff's claims are barred or diminished as a result of his failure to exercise reasonable care
25 in mitigating his damages.

FIFTEENTH DEFENSE

To the extent that they are sued in their individual capacity, all federal agents are entitled to qualified immunity from suit because they violated no clearly established constitutional or statutory right of plaintiff.

SIXTEENTH DEFENSE

Federal Agents' actions were privileged under federal and state law.

SEVENTEENTH DEFENSE

Federal Agents used only reasonable force and the force used was reasonably necessary under circumstances with which they were confronted.

EIGHTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff had knowledge of and voluntarily assumed the risk of all that transpired. Plaintiff's injuries, if any, arose out of such risk.

NINETEENTH DEFENSE

Defendant was exercising due care while discharging a privileged law enforcement activity which he had no duty or authority to cease performing.

WHEREFORE, defendant prays that plaintiff take nothing by reason of his suit herein, that judgment be rendered in favor of said defendant, for costs of suit herein incurred, and for such other and further relief as this court may deem proper.

DATED: September 4, 2008.

Respectfully submitted,
